

Monday 25th September- Worship, Thanksgiving, Proclamation

Psalms 96:1-3 Oh, sing to the Lord a new song! Sing to the Lord, all the earth. Sing to the Lord, bless His name; proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day. Declare His glory among the nations, His wonders among all peoples.

As we start this week of prayer, let us worship our Lord with a song of thanksgiving for He is worthy of our praise! The beautiful thing about worship is that it sets our hearts to God and from that place of a settled heart, we can expect to effortlessly make proclamations about the kingdom of God. We know that out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks (Luke 6:45) so a heart full of praise will speak the good news of the Gospel!

We cannot expect to see a shift in our culture without inviting the King of Glory in to this season of stepping into evangelism so let us humbly come before him with a heart of worship; see the following prayer as a stepping stone into worshipping God today:

Lord God,

We take our time today to dedicate it to you in worship and thanksgiving.

We thank you Jesus for your faithfulness to us, even to the point of your death

And we worship you as the King of Kings, Lord of Lords.

In this season of stepping into evangelism,

We present our entire selves as a living sacrifice to you

For we know this is our true spiritual worship (Romans 12:1).

Help us to not be performative in our evangelism

But we pray Lord that our sharing the gospel with others

Comes out as a natural overflow of a life of worshipping you.

Amen

ACTION: Take a step of faith and proclaim the good news of Salvation to someone today-ask a friend to keep you accountable for this and check in with them at the end of the day!
